Good morning Amy,

We request dec pages from the lenders....sometimes they send them, sometimes they don't. We'll obtain "verbals" from the lenders if they don't send the dec. page and they typically refer to Scott as he's probably more popular in the area. If you guys will let your borrowers know to bring a copy of their dec page to closing, then we can make sure the premium checks get to the right place. Or if you guys can fax over a dec page to us if your borrower knows who they're closing with (they typically do), then we can send the checks where they need to go.

Thank you for the clarification Amy. I wasn't playing a blame game and perhaps "more popular" was the wrong choice of works; it's just that most of the agents I work with go to Scott for their insurance needs.

I'm going into our system now that generates check to make sure Bishop Insurance Services, PLLC is associated with you and your correct mailing address of 1813 Ingalls Avenue, Pascagoula, MS 39567. If you'd like to send me the binder prior to closing, I'll make sure my staff issues the check to the right company.

Thank you again for your explanation. Have a good rest of the day,
Andy

Good afternoon Andy,

You may have your terminology wrong. What you normally receive prior to closing is what in the Insurance World is called a Binder. Most Insurance Agencies do not bind coverage until the date of closing. That way we do not get stuck on the hook for 25% minimum earned premium if the closing does not go through.

After binding coverage, we then expect a check immediately so we can pay the Insurance Carrier promptly. In turn, after binding coverage we sometimes receive a Declarations Page through their online system. If they don't have an online system, the policy processes through the MGA (Managing General Agency-Middle Man) which in turn can take up to four weeks to receive a Declarations Page from the MGA.

My Business, Bishop Insurance SERVICES, PLLC clearly does everything and more to make sure the check is generated and mailed to the correct address. What is happening is called human error - your employees are incorrectly issuing the checks on a regular basis. We have called your office AFTER our binder was sent to you to make sure it was going to be properly generated and were told by your office they had all the correct information, and still the check was issued incorrectly.

I also do not appreciate the assumption that Scott is "MORE POPULAR." That is ridiculous. My father, John Bishop started his Agency in Pascagoula in 1976. My name, Amy Bishop Coakley is very well known in the Insurance world along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Also, just another fact, another brother, Johnny Bishop (deceased) started an Agency in the Pass known as Bishop Insurance BROKERS which my mother still continues to operate. Obviously, you don't service your clients well or you would happen to know who I am. Maybe after all this blame game you will know who Bishop Insurance Services is now.

Respectfully,

Good morning Amy,

We request dec pages from the lenders....sometimes they send them, sometimes they don't. We'll obtain "verbals" from the lenders if they don't send the dec. page and they typically refer to Scott as he's probably more popular in the area. If you guys will let your borrowers know to bring a copy of their dec page to closing, then we can make sure the premium checks get to the right place. Or if you guys can fax over a dec page to us if your borrower knows who they're closing with (they typically do), then we can send the checks where they need to go.

Scott,
Yes, this is ours. Alfonso just can't get it straight with you and us!!!!!! No matter how many times we call and speak with them.

Kelly,
Please re-cut "my" agency Bishop Insurance SERVICES, PLLC 1813 Ingalls Ave., Pascagoula, MS 39567 I will need that check delivered today by courier or overnighted. This is an ongoing battle we seem to have with Alfonso. I don't know what else to do to get yall to understand that we are separate offices.

Scott,
Attached are the renewal quote and terrorism for the above risk that expires on 10/23. Please review and let me know if you have any questions or need anything further to bind coverage. Let me know on the pricing. I may be able to give a little more credit off the GL. The property is less than a mile from the coast, but I'll do what I can. Just let me know.

Thank you!
